

Fall Girl

'Mod Squad's Peggy Lipton
in autumn fashions

Swing into fall with Peggy Lipton of The Mod Squad. Her look is tanned, lean and blonde—the right look for fall clothes designed by Gunter for Project 2.

Left: Blond wool tunic dress with patch pockets is worn over matching pants. $160.

Below: Short, flared black-and-white duck raincoat and pants. Everything zips. $100. Peggy in profile wearing a soft, white wool-jersey hood that is → attached to a skinny jump suit.

Left: Snug wool
trench coat is cut very tight to the body.

Wear it with matching pants—both in vicuna color. Buckled
and buttoned in brass.

Coat $145, pants
$50. Vanilla wool body-sweater with turtle neck is by Jane Irwill.

Right: Long duck raincoat with a very military air—the color of wheat. Brass chain
links the top brass buttons. The back is very Edwardian with a high belt. $90.

Far right: Castanets
and Spanish guitars.
Black moire shirt is slashed to the high
waist of the wool
flamenco-dancer's trousers. Not shown—

a long, sleeveless
black wool vest.
$160 for the three pieces. Shoes and boots by Nina.

Gloves by Kislav. END
